Location

The premises are situated within the town centre of Skipton, off Coach Street, which in turn is a one way street accessed from Swadford Street leading to Gargrave Road. The premises are to be found a short distance from the main high street, with Skipton comprising a range of local and national retailers including Boyes, Blacks sporting goods, Bizzie Lizzie's and Oakleys Pizzeria.

The property itself is situated within a parade of shops adjacent to the canal and enjoys a high level of footfall from visitors to the canal as well as adjacent occupiers Aagrah restaurant and The Yorkshire Rose Pub.

Description

The property is arranged over ground and first floors with an area of external seating included to the front. Currently, the ground floor comprises of a seating area and serving area together with kitchen, preparation and storage accommodation.

At first floor is an additional area of seating together with storage and customer toilet facilities.

Outside is a yard which could provide additional seating.

The property's location and layout would make it well suited to a variety of uses, especially a bar or restaurant use.
